The sky is made of rivers before and after they became rivers,... (Caryn writes in Chasing Weather. Weather) ... subtly shapes our days, infuses our moods and interactions, and at times, completely re-orientes our lives. Catching moments of stunning beauty and surprising shifts in the sky helps make the vibrant and variable world more visible to us, and shows us how to truly see where and who we are. This fascinating book merges storm chasing photos of Stephen Locke, and the poetry Caryn Mirriam-Goldberg.
