This publication contains briefs for each major case in Kamisar's casebook on criminal procedure. The briefs present the essential facts, issue, decision, and rationale for each case in a clear, concise manner and will help readers to identify, understand, and absorb the core knowledge from each case. They are followed by a useful legal analysis. The book also supplies case vocabulary and a corresponding memory graphic for each brief, providing a visual representation of the relevant facts or law of the case.
