Rosie is happiest in the lab where she works as a botanical scientist, but her family demands that she join them at society events to help keep the legendary Linden family in the public eye. She may be most comfortable with dirt under her fingernails, but she's made a deal—if she can live up to her mother and sister's expectations for one month, they'll get off her case. Little does Rosie know that this temporary arrangement might lead her to a lasting love.
