We think we know God's heart better than we actually do.

The prophet Jonah certainly did. We find his story compelling because all of us hesitate to follow God from time to time; Jonah's story has been our own. However, Tullian Tchividjian shows us that the book of Jonah reveals how God relentlessly pursues rebels—a category that ultimately includes everyone—though he has every right and plenty of reasons to give up on us all.

This gripping presentation of the story of Jonah will open your eyes wider than ever to God's relentless, purposeful, and inexhaustible grace.
