For anyone who loves to rummage and spot a bargain amongst the junk, Cadogan's best-selling guide to London markets is ideal! This new edition is fully updated with all the practical information readers need to know--bus routes, detailed maps, opening days and times, and listings of the best marketplace pubs and cafés. It also includes a section on farmers' markets; a great way to get fresh, organic produce in the city center. Harriss shows how to track down a string of Georgian pearls for a song in the rabbit warren stalls of Portobello, where to listen to the buskers, some of them students from the top London music schools, or watch the jugglers using flaming torches and chainsaws. Antiques, vintage clothes, flowers, fruit or crafts--whatever shoppers want, they will find it at one of the sixty traditional markets Phil Harriss explores.
