Dear Lord ... I'm worried about what I am doing... Help me so that Mom will be proud of me when she wakes up. Sophomore year, a time when Esther should be having the time of her life, but one fateful afternoon changes everything, shattering Esther's once carefree existence. What seem to be minor injuries from a car wreck leave her mother in a coma. Where is her father? Hundreds of miles away. Esther finds herself entirely on her own, facing trials much greater than her young years are equipped to handle. Wanting to carry the burden for her family, Esther sets of on a journey that allows her to understand that powers beyond her control are at work and her faith in God is stronger than she realizes despite her fears. Will her dad come home? Will her mother wake up? Find out how God tests Esther's Courage. Author Dannette Barras is a registered nurse in Prescott, Arizona, where she has noticed firsthand the need for girl role models. Her work has taken her as far as Kenya to provide medical services. She has held several positions in God's service, including assistant youth director. With the help of her husband, Bryan, she has raised three sons and is currently raising twin daughters.
