I Speak of Women (A Short Story) Ivana Arruda Leite

From Brazilian writer Ivana Arruda Leite comes this hallucinatory and fantastical collection of microfiction.

At once surreal and grounded in stark reality, these stories offer poignant, touching, and at times shocking insight into the lives and minds of women in modern Brazil. Varied in detail, each tale explores a woman's sense of identity and place, within Brazilian society and at vulnerable moments within her most intimate relationships. Diving deep to the raw psychological core of her protagonists, Leite shatters the traditional rules for both women and literature, producing a powerful voice of female rebellion.
