The main aim of this book is to give you a summary of different things you should know and do in order to give yourself and your partner an unforgettable experience each time you are making love.

When we think of foreplay, we only consider the physical act of sexual foreplay. However, what happens before that? Did you know that flirting with another person could be considered foreplay? Why? Because it creates anticipation and that is exactly what foreplay is meant to do. It arouses you and your partner and creates awareness of each other and anticipation of what is to come. Master each type and keep your partner always guessing with anticipation.
