Desert Notes: Reflections in the Eye of a Ravens and River Notes: The Dance of Herons Barry Lopez

Here, for the first time in one volume, are two of Lopez's masterpieces, River Notes and Desert Notes. From the thundering power of the river's swift current, to the stillness of clear freshwater pools; to desert springs, birds and wind, and rattlesnakes . . . and the terrible intrusion of man, Lopez allows us to share moments of intense personal experience as man tries to come to terms with the Earth's landscape, and with his own existence.

Nancy Collins:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for.
