Hot Copy: Classic Gay Erotica from the Magazine Era Dale Chase

What an era it was, racks of magazines with hot guys on the glossy cover and hotter ones inside. Tucked in among the slick photos were stories, two or three to an issue, of fiction by a host of writers, including Dale Chase who spent eight lively years writing about sex with mechanics, bikers, professors, politicians, and a host of others; sex in traffic school, supply rooms, and onstage at the theater; and sex in just about every venue you can imagine and a few you can't. Characters are strong in Chase's work. Her prose is lean and powerful, and her sex scenes are guaranteed to turn up the heat. Take a trip back to a bygone time that showcased some of the finer gay erotica ever written. Listen to any chapter, and prepare to be stirred.
