O grande fora da lei: A origem do GTA (Portuguese Edition) David Kushner

"Quando o crime compensa."

Como um grupo de jovens estudantes com grandes sonhos e pouca experiência revolucionam a cultura e a indústria? No caso da bilionária indústria do videogame, que movimenta mais dinheiro que Hollywood, chegando a US$ 75 bilhões, ajuda se a turma for liderada por iconoclastas ousados com a visão de um fora da lei e a ética de trabalho de um puritano, que cresceram loucamente apaixonados por filmes de gangues, games e rap. Pois é este o improvável perfil dos irmãos Sam and Dan Houser, responsáveis pelo jogo mais revolucionário, controverso e bem-sucedido da história - a franquia Grand Theft Auto (GTA).

Em "O Grande Fora da Lei: a origem do GTA", o aclamado escritor, jornalista e gamer inveterado David Kushner nos conduz por uma divertida jornada com altos riscos e lucros exorbitantes do mundo cada vez mais acelerado dos maiores players da indústria dos games - e de seus inimigos prontos para derrubá-los. Kushner revela de forma brilhante a história não contada das pessoas que criaram o produto que definiu uma geração e enfureceu outra. Elaborado por mais de uma década com reportagens, entrevistas e muitas horas jogando, o livro de Kushner mergulha fundo nos bastidores de GTA, até então mantidos em segredo e alimentados por rumores e mitos. Além disso, ele examina a violenta reação cultural e política que ajudou a manter sua vida comercial em alta ao mesmo tempo em que ameaçava a existência do próprio jogo. A franquia enfrentou processos e disputas judiciais com o objetivo de tirá-lo de circulação, movidos pelo falso moralismo e puritanismo da cultura norte-americana - e sobreviveu.
