Cases and Comments on Criminal Procedure (University Casebook Series) James Haddad, Elizabeth Marsh, James Zagel, Linda Meyer, Gary Starkman, William Bauer

As with prior editions, the casebook begins with a treatment of limitations of law enforcement investigative procedures. And also, like prior editions, the authors stress the newer decisions, with reliance upon summaries of older decisions to trace the development of the law in various areas. Materials related to problems in the context of criminal procedure are provided to remind the student that criminal procedure does not begin and end with police conduct and pre-trial motions. Every chapter has been revised, updated, and contracted or expanded as the law has developed. Topics covered include expert review of the limitations upon law enforcement practices and procedures, confessions and interrogations, and eyewitness identification procedures. The casebook examines surveillance, law of arrest, and search and seizure. It identifies exclusionary principles and alternative remedies for unlawful investigative practices, as well as limits of undercover work. There is an overview of judi
