Wings of the Wind Diana Wallis Taylor

Artists paint with a variety of mediums, but poets use words to paint the pictures they want their readers to see. All around us are scenes to be enjoyed, emotions to be expressed, and events to commemorate. The author has touched on a wide number of subjects that will make you smile, sigh or shed a few tears, but in each poem the author shares her heart. Here and there, the illustrator has enhanced some of the poetry with her unique artwork. Let your eyes and imagination soar on Wings of the Wind and share this book with a friend you want to bless.
