Il cimitero di Highgate (Italian Edition) RICCARDO NORI

Il Cimitero di Highgate è un romanzo thriller con ambientazioni contemporanee ma che, grazie ai frequenti flashback, sposta l'azione in un passato in realtà neanche troppo lontano; il periodo in questione è la metà del XIX secolo, età vittoriana, mentre la città descritta è Londra, con la sua società ricca e bigotta a cui fanno da contraltare i sobborghi sofferenti; in questo ambiente si fece strada la figura di Dante Gabriel Rossetti che fu fondatore del movimento, accostabile al Simbolismo, che fu poi definito Confraternita dei Preraffaelliti. Il movimento mirava all'arte incontaminata facendo riferimento ad artisti, inizialmente soprattutto pittorici, precedenti a Raffaello; i Preraffaelliti erano amanti della patria e dei temi sociali, come quelli legati all'emigrazione, ma anche temi biblici e paesaggistici. È proprio in quel periodo che si verifica l'evento che si ripercuoterà poi su due ignari ragazzi teramani in visita al mitico Cimitero di Highgate, sede della tomba della moglie di Rossetti, Elizabeth Siddal, dalla cui vicenda nacque la leggenda del Vampiro di Highgate, con i relativi avvistamenti, e sospette aggressioni, protrattisi negli anni.

Il collegamento tra i due periodi ed i rispettivi protagonisti sono le radici di Dante Gabriel Rossetti: Gabriele Rossetti, padre di Dante, era originario di Vasto, centro del chietino, abruzzese come i due teramani. Nelle vicende contemporanee i due ragazzi se la vedranno con un problematico quasi coetaneo che a causa di una Cat Scratch fever, o febbre da graffio di gatto (dall'originale brano del rocker americano Ted Nugent), subisce una mutazione genetica che lo trasforma in uno spietato assassino. A supportare i due ragazzi interverranno un investigatore specializzato in Cinesica ed un ex agente di polizia dall'oscuro passato. I personaggi contemporanei si muovono in ambienti noti del teramano, allenandosi alla Palestra New Olympia e riunendosi spesso al Liverpool Pub. A causa della descrizione degli efferati omicidi, il romanzo è consigliato ad un pubblico adulto.
