Love Me or Not: Dont Judge A Book By It's Cover M L Henry

In the fast-paced world of the porn industry, Lisa “Star” Robinson is a highly successful actress. So successful, in fact, that even those closest to her don’t realize what lies just below her well-scripted surface. She too has started losing touch with who she really is. Her manager and boyfriend, Dre, thinks he knows exactly what’s best for her and has no problem enforcing it. However, he has been hiding a few dark secrets that will force Lisa to confront her feelings and summon her true strength. Just released from a seven year prison sentence, J is ready to focus on his career as a talented hip-hop artist. He vows to let nothing, not even his dream girl, get in the way of his success. That is, until the night he lays eyes on Lisa. As he navigates his new freedom, J’s partner Ricky helps him pursue his dreams as well as the woman who stole his heart at first sight. As Lisa and J’s worlds become intertwined, their closest friends and fiercest enemies find themselves thrust into the heart of a compelling drama where secrets are uncovered, loyalties are tested, desires are inflamed, and lives hang in the balance.
