War Damage Elizabeth Wilson

London in the aftermath of World War II is a beaten down, hungry place, so it's no wonder that Regine Milner's Sunday house parties are so popular. But when one of Regine's party guests turns up dead, there is no shortage of suspects.

War Damage is full of secrets, sexual experimentation, and surprises.

Elizabeth Wilson is an independent researcher and writer best known for her commentaries on feminism and popular culture. She is currently a visiting professor at the London College of Fashion.
