Slippers for Hannah Brenda Anderson

When there is a problem in the barnyard everyone wants to help! In Slippers for Hannah the farm animals are a great example of friendship and love as they work together to help Hannah solve a problem. The author has used real pictures of farm animals to display personalities as the animals work together to solve the problem. The background pictures of the beautiful mountains of Idaho create the perfect setting for this story. The author/illustrator has a style all her own to instill important values while entertaining the reader. The ending will surprise you.
