This book title has been renamed and is now titled Fatherhood - And the Pursuit of Holiness. Search for it by the new title. It is no longer for sale by this name.

How disengaged fathers are creating a crisis for the church and driving children away from the faith. A controversial book challenging everything you thought you knew about Christian fatherhood.

This book explains:

- Why parents are superior to public and private schools.
- Why a strong marriage is essential to being a good dad.
- What it means to live with your wife in an understanding way.
- Why desiring more children is a godly desire.
- Why the family, and not the state, is God's tool for social welfare.
- What resources a father can use to teach Scripture.

A few facts mentioned in this book:

- Up to 94 percent of Christian homeschooled children remain in the faith.
- Homeschooled children perform in the 87th percentile in all academic subjects.
- Parents with no formal education do a superior job training children than formally trained teachers and pastors.
